

Financial Aid Revision Form

The Financial Aid Revision Form allows you to update your financial aid based on changes to your plans or preferences if you have already accepted or declined your financial aid offer. You can use this form to accept/decline loans, request additional loan funds from the amount you are eligible for, decrease the amount of loans previously accepted, update your enrollment status, or make adjustments if your attendance plans have changed. Submitting this form helps ensure your financial aid matches your current situation.
