

Hi! I'm Sal. I have a 3-year old that loves cars and an 18-month old that loves books, animals, and whatever her brother is doing. My husband and I have our work scheduled so we don't need daycare but sometimes it's nice for me to get a couple of extra hours of work in. I would love to find a babysitter that is flexible to watch the kids here and there. Ideally, I'd like someone to come Wednesday mornings for 2-3 hours between 8am – 12pm. This could work on Thursday too. Additionally every once in a while I could use help from 4-6pm on a random tues, wed, thurs. If you have a flexible schedule or a day here and there that could work, please apply!

Hours: 5+ hour a week
